Sustainable Yunlin, Chiayi and Tainan

Sustainable travel is a concept and an attitude in tourism, aiming to reduce the impact of travel on the environment and the society, while boosting the economic development of the travel destination. To implement sustainability and instilling its ethos into the industries, the Southwest Coast National Scenic Area Administration hopes to team up with local companies, residents and tourists in the practice of sustainability.

As a visitor to Yunlin, Chiayi and Tainan, I can take these sustainability actions...

Cherish leaflets
Collect, reuse and recycle

Bring your own water bottle
Avoid drinking bottled beverages

Bring your own cutleries
No more disposable cutlery

Drive less
Take public transport or ride a bicycle

Support local businesses
Buy eco-friendly local products

Conserve ecology
Do not engage in anything harmful to the environment

The West Coast Shuttle Bus aims to implement the UN SDGs

7 Affordable and Clean Energy

9 Industry, Innovation and Infrastructure

11 Sustainable Cities and Communities
